4Life - A Philosophy of Principles and Integrity - Like a green, thriving tree, with branches that reach ever higher into the sunlit sky - but with roots that sink deep into the nutrient-rich earth - 4Life is dedicated to growth based on sound, deep-rooted principles. 4Life will continue its global expansion. It will press forward with its commitment to take Transfer Factor to the World. But 4Life will never abandon the principles of integrity, honesty and generosity that have brought it success in the past. It is the reason for its current success, and it is the force that will ensure its success in the future.

TIMING - This is about being in the RIGHT place - at the RIGHT time - with the RIGHT opportunity. With all of the Success Factors that are already in place (see below) - there is NO "best time" to build - whether it's - summer - fall - winter - or spring - it's the same thing.

ALL of the factors are in place for success - every piece of the puzzle is tightly fitted together:

- (1)- The product sector (health/wellness industry - $ trillion, forecasted)
- (2)- The company ( management / owner paradigm / mission / strong 6+ year growth)
- (3)- The products (exclusive / patented / efficacious / safe / proven longevity)
- (4)- The compensation (balanced / fair / compressed / attractive [overrides - bonuses ++)
- (5)- The corporate support (toll-free lines / audios / videos / cd's /marketing materials)
- (6)- The PN Upline support (FREE websites / training / marketing systems / 30+ consultants / ++)

ON THE QT => Cool Things that Kim Komando passes along to you. Here's what she says...

Online software is the wave of the future. With online software, there's nothing to install. And you can access your information from any computer.

Google's already got a couple of online programs. First there's Google Spreadsheet. It's kind of like Excel. Then, there's Writely, which is similar to Word. If you have an invitation to use these services, try them. They're handy. But, if you don't have an invitation, don't fear. Just click the link below. You can request an invitation for either. Enjoy!

( Naomi - PN // Management Liaison )

))) - SERVING => a Dying Art

Where there is hatred let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light.

St. Francis of Assisi

Most of us are quite familiar with this beautiful poem turned into song.

Most of us are all too familiar with the phrase "going the extra mile."

Since it is healthy to do self-examinations, how about a mental "check-up?"

When was the last time you went the extra mile with your loved ones, your friends, your business associates? Last week, I found myself in a very peculiar situation. It was imperative that I contact a particular business that we hire to give us a service. However, much to my dismay, when placing the call, I was thrown into what seemed like a calling maize. After holding on the phone for a full 27 minutes, and then having my call answered only to be re-routed to another agent, I was feeling the pressure of other pressing matters that certainly needed my immediate attention. I won't bore you with the tedious details, but I will state that the entire matter was still being worked on after a full 83 minutes on the phone. This triggered my mind, and I began to think back to the "good old days" when service was considered to be an honor.

What has happened to service? I'm sure that all of you have experienced like circumstances and the temptation to become frustrated and unload our frustrations upon the representative who is trying to help us. Rather than do this, however, I'd like to challenge each of us to instead, take a quick survey of our own attitudes towards serving others.

We often mention great leaders in this format. Leaders such as Sam Walton, who placed service above and beyond any bottom line or profit. In this generation it is still a fact that those who serve, live longer, healthier, happier and more fulfilling lives.

Those of us who still recognize the beauty of giving and not just seeing what we can get out of life, need to be examples every day, teaching by our attitudes and our conduct.

See You At The Top! / Naomi

PROFESSIONAL NETWORKERS is totally committed to maintaining high professional standards, and to bringing value and exceptional support to its quality family of distributors. It is dedicated to on-going education and training of its partners - to coaching in financial, business and life success strategies - to partnering with them in the building of successful 4Life businesses - and to celebrating with them in the achievement of excellence - of success - of leadership - and of the pursuit of their full potential.

But first we believe a higher purpose is in the need to nurish each other's spirit with caring friendships, mutual respect, fellowship, and some fun along the way.
