HAVE A HAPPY HOLIDAY SEASON!

PN Holiday Hours & Conference Calls: Our office will be closed Friday 12-22-06 through Monday 12-25-06 and again on Friday 12-29-06 through 1-1-07. The PN Interactive and the How to Get Started calls will be cancelled.

PN => Yet ANOTHER Record Month! - Yes, November, 2006 was 'another' record month! Congratulations to all of you for teamwork and living healthy. I posted a few days ago that this was the first month in some time that we didn't break our record both in the USA and worldwide. Well some of the volume was slow in posting from overseas. We DID beat our all time record- by 51,000LP! We were close here in the USA but didn't quite break the record. Not bad for a Holiday Season.

We have just begun our journey. In light of the potential for 4life, we are only 4% of what market research indicates we are capable of reaching. For those of you that are on your way, congratulations and keep doing what you are doing. Those of you that haven't been able to get your dream machine on the road yet, keep learning, be patient and together we will make it. Mike

New! PN Conference Call Pho No! => (435)-871-6000 [same pin - 484943 #] -

Professional Networkers is continually trying to improve the quality of its services and the support tools for everyone in its organization. PN is changing ALL of the PN conference call dial in numbers AGAIN - to try to eliminate the "all circuits are busy" trouble many distributors are experiencing. See the new number above.

Below is our current schedule.

Monday 9PM ET Interactive Conference Call
 Monday 10PM ET How to Get Started Conference Call

Tuesday 9PM ET Interactive Conference Call

Wednesday 2PM ET Interactive Conference Call

Wednesday 8:30PM ET Interactive Conference Call

Wednesday 9:30PM ET Mike Akins' Training Conference Call

Thursday 9PM ET Interactive Conference Call

Friday 2PM ET Interactive Conference Call

Saturday 2PM ET Interactive Conference Call

I suggest that each of you occasionally visit your conference calls. You can learn from the question and answers session as well as from the presentation.

Also, the more of you on the call the more exciting the call is to new distributors and guests. You may at some time decide to bring a guest to the call and will hope that other distributors are on the call to create excitement and a sense of activity. The worse thing that can happen to your quest is to be the only person on the call besides you.

There is a tendency for networkers, after they have been around for a period of time, to stop showing up for conference calls. This is normal. You feel like if you do not have a guest why join in on a conference call.

You are investing in your future when you join a call even without a guest. You are ensuring that there will be a call for you when you do bring someone to the conference call. Just a thought to meditate on.

Highest regards, Mike

'The Notion of MOTION' - "I have come to believe in Network Marketing as one of the most brilliant concepts in the world, and I am confident that it will be one of the most powerful economic forces of this century. Not only is Network Marketing, in my opinion, the most effective way to distribute products, it is also the only avenue I am aware of in which an individual's financial success is solely dependent upon helping others achieve financial success.

"I am proud of the personal satisfaction, integrity and significance that can accompany this industry, and more specifically, I am proud of the opportunity provided by 4Life.

"Greek philosopher, Epictetus, once said - 'First, say to yourself what you would be, and then do what you have to do'. Just as dreaming and capturing a vision of success is an essential factor in achieving success with 4Life - doing what you have to do - is required to fulfill your journey and accomplish your goals.

"In other words ... greater health, financial freedom, increased free time, enjoyment and passion for one's work, and the chance to positively affect other people's lives all begin when you get moving." - Trent Tenny / 4Life Sr. VP / Marketing

))) - Setting GOALS for 2007

Everyone has a Dream inside of them. Whatever that Dream is, it will take a carefully laid out Plan to achieve it, and the right Strategies to execute it.

Every day is a brand new day. It does not matter what happened yesterday - last month - or last year. That is history (good - or not so good). NOW is the 'perfect' time for you to set a new course for 2007 - and a 4Life Network Marketing business is the finest VEHICLE to accomplish whatever path you set for yourself and your loved ones.

TIMING - The very best time for building a successful business in this industry is => January to the end of May each year. It has been proven. Part of the reason is that people are 'more approachable' after the Holiday Season - the relatives have gone - they have new bills to pay - the tax season will be approaching - companies are outsourcing and downsizing - pink slips are issued - job security is a thing of the past. They know they are too vulnerable with only ONE source of income - quite apart from knowing they need to consider enhancing and/or protecting their health.

GOALS - For starters, if you are coachable, if have a good attitude, a burning desire - and the belief (in 4Life / TF-RioVida / the Pay Plan / PN) - and that you deserve success - you are already well on your way. Next, if you will think hard about, and 'write out', your GOALS for 2007 (make them realistic) - put actual 'dates' after them - develop your Plan - and concentrate on the actions you'll take (not the 'results') - you are almost there. Finally, if your W-H-Y is big enough - and you follow through with persistence, you have the KEYS in your hand to a very successful, happy and purposeful future.

LEADERSHIP REWARDS - Your enthusiasm and excitement will be contagious. You will become the Leader of a fast growing organization, through the Law of Attraction, and you will mentor them to follow your lead. As a result, you will develop other leaders who too, will understand the vital need for building trusting trlationships, while also acquiring the skills needed to move forward. As you care for and truly support your family of business partners, they will respect and admire you for your integrity and your principles, and for who you are and what you represent.

PROFESSIONAL NETWORKERS is here to HELP you, each step of the way, as you craft your Goals for 2007 - to take Transfer Factor to the World. NOW is the time to get started!

At this special time of year, our PN staff would like to extend Best Wishes for a wonderful Holiday Season and for a future filled with good health, peace, prosperity and happiness. Mike.

May You be BLESSED (Vol on) => www.MayYouBeBlessedMovie.com:80/

PROFESSIONAL NETWORKERS is totally committed to maintaining high professional standards, and to bringing value and exceptional support to its quality family of distributors. But first we believe a higher purpose is in the need to nurish each other's spirit with caring friendships, mutual respect, fellowship, and some fun along the way.
